

Arlindo Pardini

Brazilian Society for Surgery of the Hand

Born: Belo Horizonte, Minas Gerais, Brazil, 1935

Medical School: Uberaba University, Minas Gerais, Brazil, 1959

Medical Training:

Post graduation in Orthopaedics in Belo Horizonte, Brazil, 1959-61

Fellow in Hand Surgery, Iowa State University, USA, under Adrian E.Flatt, 1967

Fellow in Hand Surgery, Blodgett Memorial Hospital, Michigan, USA, under Alfred B. Swanson, 1971

British Council Fellowship in Hand Surgery, Sheffield, England, under Douglas Campbell-Reid, 1978.

Major Appointments:

Chief of the Hand Surgery Department, Hospital Ortopedico, Belo Horizonte, Minas Gerais, Brazil

Memberships of Organisations include:

Member of the International Rescue Committee in Saigon, Vietnam, 1973

President, Brazilian Hand Society, 1982-83

President, South America Federation of Societies for Surgery of the Hand, 1992-93

President, International Federation of Societies for Surgery of the Hand (IFSSH), 2004-07

President, Brazilian Orthopaedic Society, 2006

Member of IFSSH Scientific Committees

Member of several Committees of the Brazilian Orthopaedic and Hand Societies

Lectures and Publications include:

More than 100 scientific papers and chapter of books published in Brazil and other countries.

Editor of 4 books

